

Blue Mountain Chapter Washington Farm Forestry Field Day

Saturday, September 17th 2011 beginning at 9:30 AM

Hosted by Jay Holtzmilller of Anatone, WA

Meet at Jay's place 9:30 AM. Travel to a farmed field now growing pine see results of thinning and Pruning. Visit nearby acreage all thinned, pruned and cleaned by hand.

Observe an example of a DNR shaded fuel break.

Equipment Demonstration

LUNCH Hamburger BBQ provided by Anatone FFA by donation.
Please RSVP your head count to Susan Kelly @ 509-520-4579 or email gnstimber@yahoo.com

Consulting forester will discuss landowner management plans

DNR will present current programs available

Logging equipment demonstration of pruning and piling

Depending on interest, we may arrange an 18-seat bus from Dayton. Please contact Susan Kelly if interested @ 509-520-4579.

For more information, call Greg Kelly at 509-520-5458 or email
gnstimber@yahoo.com

DIRECTIONS: travel to the south end of Anatone, turn Right on Mill Road (oil road), go 1.5 miles to first place on the right, big red barn