When: Wednesday, October 12, 2011 -- 6:30 p.m. for Pizza; 7:00 p.m. for Meeting

Who: Scott Morgan, Director of Sustainability
The Evergreen State College

Mr. Morgan coordinated the college's study into biomass for energy which included extensive review of research available. He is well-informed on the subject and is looking forward to being our speaker and answering our questions.

What: Biomass as a Renewable Energy Source- what is it?

- What are the benefits to society and the environment?
- What are the concerns?
- Where else in the world is it used?
- How is it regulated?
- How can family forest landowners participate?
