Christmas Wreath-making Party

December 5, 2009

Samantha Hicks Tree Farm

Upper Puget Sound Tree Farmers enjoyed fantastic fellowship, drink and food including delicious clam chowder and chili made by Samantha Hicks and Debbie Buse, our hosts.

Splendid Christmas music played in Samantha's barn, while everyone made their wreaths, out of fresh boughs and other evergreens. Here is a photo of us holding our wreaths.

The turnout was the best ever. Debbie Buse said that for next year, she is going to have to buy another crock-pot to feed us hungry tree farmers!

Happy Holidays to all in WFFA!
